

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, May 15, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

670 million shares traded

Lawyers taking message to public

Medicaid benefits pared to cut costs

Seat-belt campaign pays off

Enthusiastic consumer spending helps sluggish economy recover

Launch slated for tech journal

Editorials

Human Services: Leadership limbo can't last long

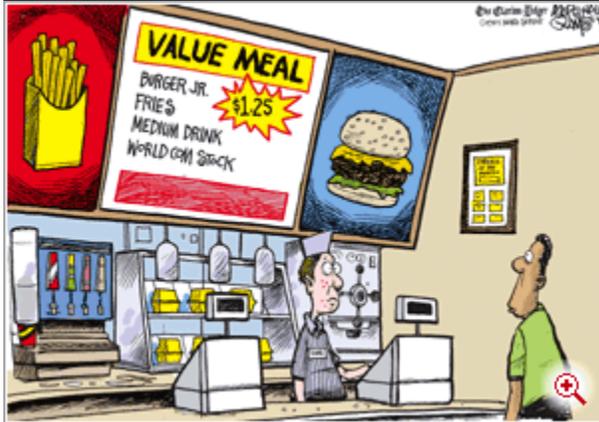

Hosemann case: Trial delay time a legitimate issue

Police chief: Mayor's foot-dragging continues

Moore's tobacco fight bad for Miss.

Plan to buy out tenured professors could cost in long run

Supreme Court candidates will dodge this one

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Guard troops to leave Coast airport on May 29

Lawyers: Tort reform would hurt the poor

Medicaid chief seeks guidance from lawmakers

ReREDISTRICTING: GEORGE, JACKSON AND STONE COUNTIES So simple, even the Jackson County Board of Supervisors could do it without hiring a consultant

Auto dealers merely seek a level field

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Barbour cites goals as governor, still unsure he'll run

State Medicaid committee meets, no offer endorsed

SONNY SCOTT: Revisit the 'Socratic method' for good teaching

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Legislators delay decisions on possible Medicaid cuts

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Universities face grave challenges

Chamber employs 'terrorist' tactics

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Read Our View

Medical poll numbers show sickly diagnosis

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Attorneys give their viewpoint Say current tort system not to blame

Money to pour into contest for McRae post

Bill Minor: Compromise needed on tort issue

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Layoffs might be needed at DHS

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Chamber warning: pass tort reform

Insurers understand doctors' woes

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times